The coastal sound map aims to reflect the beauty and diversity of the entire UK coast, 775 miles of which we care for thanks to our Neptune Coastline Campaign. 'I've been blown away by the sheer diversity and quality of coastal sounds submitted to the project,' says Cheryl Tipp, curator of wildlife and environment sounds at the British Library.

Sound helps animals in a number of ways. Explain to children that having ears on opposite sides of our heads enables us (and other animals) to judge the location a sound comes from. Find a safe, comfortable outdoor space where children can sit quietly. Then have them close their eyes and listen to the sounds around them for several minutes.
